In Matthew 16:3, Jesus rebuked the Pharisees and Sadducees for failing to discern the prophetic signs. Today, we are surely living in uncertain times, and fear of the future is escalating. Are we entering the days when God will "show wonders in the heavens and in the earth; blood and fire and pillars of smoke?" "Where the sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and awesome day of the LORD"? (Joel 2:30-31). Do such signs herald Israel's deliverance from her enemies as predicted in Ezekiel 38-39?

The intent of this update is to continue to bring understanding about the times we are living in and what we can do to prosper. God has not changed: He is still our provider, no matter what is happening around us. David states in Psalm 37:25: "I have been young, and now am old; yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his descendants begging bread." But we must also heed the whole counsel of God: "The prudent see danger and take refuge, but the simple keep going and pay the penalty." (Pro 22:3, NLT)
