

Vince Aquilino's BIO:

And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you" (1 Thes 5:12a)

Vincent Aquilino has been a Christian for over 40 years. He holds a masters and a doctorate from Wagner leadership Institute in Practical Ministry. He also holds a Bachelor's Degree in Pure Science from LeMoyne College as well as a Master's degree from Syracuse University in Computer Science.

He is recognized as an Apostle through Global Spheres, Chuck Pierce's apostolic organization, and was a member of the International Coalition of Apostolic Leaders under the leadership of Apostle John Kelly.

He ministers as the Executive Director of the Prayer and Healing Rooms of Greater Syracuse and also serves as the Healing Room Director for The International Association of Healing Rooms (IAHR) Region 1 (New York and New England) under the leadership of National Director Rick Taylor and International Director Cal Pierce.

Vincent serves as the Central New York coordinator for the the NYS Apostolic Prayer Network (Brad and Lori Bandemer) in association with The Heartland Apostolic Prayer Network (John Benefiel) and The U.S. Reformation Prayer Network (Cindy Jacobs)

He is the Director of Transformation Syracuse/CNY, an organization dedicated to bringing about unity and seeing 2 Chronicles 7:14 fulfilled. This includes engaging in high-level spiritual warfare to pave the way for awakening and revival in the Syracuse/CNY Region. He is also a coordinating member of the NYS 13-Colony Apostolic Council commissioned by Apostle Chuck Pierce and coordinated by John and Sheryl Price who provide oversight for the States that make up the original 13 Colonies. The purpose of the council is to return New York State to its original covenant roots.

Vincent serves on the Board of Directors for Light of the World Ballet and Christians for Syracuse.

He attends a local church and is under local and national covering.
